US-UK Defence Trade Co-operation Treaty

Industry Consultation
8 November 2011

Andrew Bates
Export Policy and Assurance Assistant Head
Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

- Treaty requires movement of US Defense Articles to be within an Approved Community for the end-use of US or UK Governments

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

- Re-transfer or re-export to non-Approved Community entities in the UK or overseas considered only in exceptional circumstances
- UK Approved Community facility proposing to re-transfer or re-export Treaty items would need to put itself back to a position where it had US approval before seeking UK approval

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

- Where UK Approved Community facility proposes to re-transfer Treaty item to a non-Approved Community facility in the UK it must have:
  - Written US Government approval
  - Written UK Government approval (MOD Form 680)
  - and adhere to protective security requirements

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

- Where a UK Approved Community facility proposes to re-export Treaty item to a non-Approved Community facility overseas it must have:
  - Written US Government approval
  - Written UK Government approval (F680)
  - UK Export Licence
  - and adhere to protective security requirements, including (F1686) if for sub-contracting, collaborating or teaming, and for the transmission of US classified material

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

Arrangements will be detailed in Security Policy Framework amendment and a guidance note
